Next Friends Meeting Time Monday, November 10, 2014 12:15 pm

In the Camplan Room at the Goldendale Library.

The next meeting will be November 10. Come any time after noon; the meeting will be called to order at 12:30. This meeting will focus on the Friends as a volunteer organization.

The nominating committee will present a slate of president and vice-president candidates for election, and those attending the meeting will vote. We will designate a secretary for the year remaining of the secretary's term.

The treasurer will present the work of the budget committee as the initial draft budget for 2015-2016. We ask you to consider the draft, make any suggestions or ask any questions, and take away the proposal for further review. We will vote on the final budget in the spring after opportunity for further questions and review.

We will also review our recent activities, hear about our finances, and preview upcoming library activities. We will make sure details are in order for the November 15 book sale. The October discussion on membership and sponsorship will be reviewed and a membership plan proposed. Information on upcoming workshops will be available. The executive board will recommend a policy regarding recording of meetings.

Your Library Needs Your Support

ALL of the Friends' activities are intended to assist and strengthen the Goldendale Library influence in our communities. EVERYTHING we do is fueled by volunteers who care about the library and its services.

Every November is the time for elections of Friends officers. This year president and vice-president will be chosen. (Next year is the year for secretary and treasurer.) However, the Friends most active in our organization are pretty maxed-out--some of them have served one or more terms in every office.

We all love our library and want to continue our support of the many things it brings to our community. But we now need some "new blood" to help with the coordinating of this support. Please consider stepping up to help with our efforts. Call Judy Thomas at 773-4170 to volunteer. And, attend the next meeting if you can.

Bits and Pieces...

Individual tutoring opportunities available; ESL class cancelled

The English Language classes provided by the Friends have been cancelled because of lack of interest in the community.

Individual tutoring in English as a second language or English as a native tongue is still available by trained tutors. Anyone who would like individual tutoring can call the library to make arrangements. Judy Thomas

Fall Book Sale Upcoming

Oh, goodie, more fine volumes to curl up with this fall and winter time!

The Friends fall book sale will be 10 – 4 on Saturday, November 15. The selections donated throughout the fall will fill the Camplan Room. We are eager for you to come peruse them and carry them away one at a time or by the box- and or bag-full.

This year, for our one-day sale we are having a members-only evening on Friday, November 14th, 5 to 7. You may join (or renew) at the door, or, if your membership is current, just come. That way, you'll have first choice of all those good reads.

Deborah Heart may have called you about working a segment of the book sale. If not and you would like to help, please call her to see if more volunteer hours are available.

Start a new tradition!

Give your friends and family the gift of membership!

Individual to family Friends memberships are never out of style and keeps giving all year! The Goldendale library provides a world of knowledge to communities in Klickitat County, and the Friends support their effort through the financial support of special programs and rural outreach efforts like book baskets and book sales! Besides the good feeling they will get from being a library supporter, your gift membership will give them preferred shopping times at the book sales and our bi-monthly newsletter. A membership can change a life! Start a new Christmas tradition today!
